Departure date: Check our website Departure: Hobart Return: Hobart

Day 1: Hobart to Strahan 7:00am, First we travel to Mount Field National Park, where we stretch our legs on the Russell Falls and Tall Trees walks. We continue on to Lake St Clair for a view of Australia's deepest lake. On our way to Strahan we hike and explore the Franklin Gordon Wild Rivers National Park. We spend tonight in our own exclusive accommodation in the historic coastal township of Strahan where your guide will fill you in on the amazing history of pinning, mining and convicts! (L, D)

Day 2: Strahan to Cradle Mountain Region This morning we enjoy the intriguing history of Strahan with options to suit everyone! Take a stroll along the foreshore or up the Water Tower Hill for a priceless lookout over Macquarie Harbour and Ocean Beach; walk through a rainforest to Hogarth Falls (if you are quiet and lucky you may even spot a platypus); if you are feeling more adventurous arrange with your guide to canoe in a nearby lake (at no extra cost). Later, we take a walk through the Henty Sand Dunes, where you can even take a quad bike tour (at own expense). In the afternoon we visit the 'Silver City' of Zeehan. In the late afternoon you'll have the opportunity for a bicycle ride (included) at our overnight lodge accommodation. (B, L, D)

Day 3: Cradle Mountain to Devonport Today we discover the World Heritage Cradle Mountain National Park. Enjoy the pure air with a guided walk around Dove Lake with views of Cradle Mountain, or challenge yourself with a more strenuous hike (unguided). We spend this afternoon exploring more of the state's mid north before our arrival in Devonport. (B, L)

Day 4: Devonport to Hobart It's only a short distance through farming country to Launceston where a transfer is required for the journey to Hobart. The Midland Highway is Tasmania's historic trunk route, dotted with colonial wayside inns and rustic villages such as Campbelltown, Oatlands and Bagdad. We make a stop in the Ross, where you'll see Australia's oldest convict built bridge and have the opportunity to purchase pastries (own expense). We'll also see the infamous Ross Bakery which is legendary in Japan and those in the 'know' will be in search of Kiki the witch! Joining the Derwent Valley at Bridgewater, we'll return to Hobart mid-afternoon. We will free drop off you to transit terminal for airport shuttle or your accommodation (at own expense) in Hobart.

Inclusions: Experienced guide and Air-conditioned coach, accommodation, meals as indicated (B = Breakfast, L = Lunch, D = Dinner), complimentary canoe & bike hire

Excluding: Local payment: AU$12 Fuel levy + AU$22 National Park fees, Airport shuttle (return around $25), Optional admission fee, Personal travel insurance
